Recycle - Remember to save your aluminum cans and other aluminum for recycling. You may bring them in the foyer or toss your bag into the fenced compound to the trailer. If you crush the cans, we can get more in the trailer.
We usually get several hundred dollars when the trailer is taken into the recycler

Together

Christians are to be a people of prayer. In fact, Romans 12:12 says to be steadfast or constant in prayer. This immediately brings up two questions. Are we praying and why are we praying?

Each one must measure the time spent in prayer. Real prayer, not the quick, almost nonchalant, "talk to you later" kind. When you set aside time for an uninterrupted talk with the Lord. Jesus is known to have spent the entire night in prayer. Perhaps, you could start with 5 minutes and grow it into an hour. Try it.

It my observation that we do a fair job of being thankful. Recognizing the many blessings seems to come fairly easy for most. We have read enough scripture, sang enough songs to realize it is important to count your blessings. Know what we have.

Then we move into the theme of asking God for something else. Usually it is for ourselves or loved ones. We ask for protection and healing and guidance. We want the best for ourselves and those we love. We probably won't ask for money, but we may pray for the job for which we just applied. We pray for the things we need and want.

What does God want? Do we pray for them?

Do we pray for the kingdom to grow, for the lost to be saved? Are we as passionate in our prayers for the lost as we are for the personal desire we have? Does our loyalty to the cause of Christ fill us with the passionate drive to see it accomplished?

Are we specific in our prayers? Do we see real world situations and pray specifically for them. Let us pray for world wide revival, but let us also pray by name for the lost soul that is close to you.

We need to be persistent, consistent and continual in our prayers. Don't give up.

We need to be collective. We are not alone, we are Together. A church family that stands Together, works Together and prays Together.

Sunday Morning Sermon

Speaker - Charles Clodfelter

Sermon: 1 Samuel 16:7;10-13

Scripture: Shepherd to King: David

YOUNG PEOPLE

“The children now love luxury; they have bad manners, contempt for authority; they show disrespect for their elders and love chatter in place of exercise. Children are now tyrants, not servants of their households. They no longer rise when elders enter the room. They contradict their parents and tyrannize their teachers.”

– Socrates, fifth century B.C.

It would appear that things have not changed much in the last few millennium. The truth of the matter is, it is continuous. Every day children are entering puberty and in their adolescent wisdom believe they are the first of humanity to discover what it is to grow up. Mom, Dad– you don’t understand!

Initially, we look to those who are ahead of us by 2, 3 or 4 years, as we try to imitate them. We barely pay attention to those behind us. Our peers are the most influential as we try to be different, but alike at the same time. Psychologists then group us into “generations” as:

- G.I. Generation: Born 1900-1924 (123-99 yrs old)
- Silent Generation: Born 1928-1945 (78-95 yrs old)
- Baby Boomers: Born 1946-1964 (59-77 yrs old)
- Gen X: Born 1965-1980 (43-58 yrs old)
- Millennials: Born 1981-1996 (27-42 yrs old)
- Gen Z: Born 1997-2012 (11-26 yrs old)
- Gen Alpha: Born early 2010s-2025 (0- 10 yrs old)

Other terms are used: pre, post and all these are probably useful only in our society.

Adam and Eve would be the only people who did not experience this phenomena. Your great grandparents did and your great grandchildren will. It does not matter where you are in the equation, be kind, be helpful, not bossy. Most of all be humble.

Charles M. Clodfelter

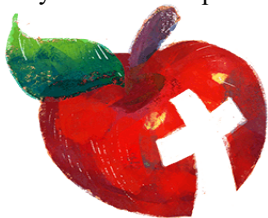

Ladies Bible Class is adopting the Child Crisis Center for a service project for 2023. We are collecting gently used small luggage, backpacks, carry-ons, or large tote bags. Why, you ask. When children leave the Child Crisis Center or move from one foster home to another, they must take their meager possessions in a trash bag if nothing else is available. We hope to put an end to this demoralizing circumstance for as many children as possible. If you can help, we will appreciate it. If you have questions please contact Teri Dove. 915-822-2419

Going to school with Jesus

By Housetoohouse hearttoheart

In Faith Takes a Name, Dwight E. Stevenson writes that if we consider ourselves to be disciples of Jesus, then we must remain “learners under the instruction of Christ.” He notes, “Quite literally, a disciple is a pupil, scholar, student or learner. In [Jesus’] world a teacher with his band of disciples was to that culture what schools and universities are to our society. To be a disciple of Jesus is to go to school with him.

Blessed with work

In the movie Return to Me, Grace works for her grandfather, Marty, in his restaurant, and the two live upstairs. After closing time one night, Grace looks through the apartment window and sees Marty cleaning tables. She yells down to ask if he wants help, and he replies, “No, dear, that’s okay. I’m blessed with work.”

Here’s a man well past retirement age laboring extra hours after his staff has clocked out. Marty simply continues to delight in his work, despite the late hour.

Although this snippet had little to do with the movie’s plot, I’ve always remembered Marty’s words. But I don’t think I’ve ever claimed to be “blessed with work.” By contrast, I often sigh as I’m dealing with messes or long to-do lists. I can get so caught up in tasks that I overlook the incredible people around me. I miss out on the blessing — the joy — of work.

Ecclesiastes 5:19 (NLT) says, “To enjoy your work ... is indeed a gift from God.” In what ways are you “blessed with work”?
